THE BULLETIN.

CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

HOW IT IS TO BE ORGANIZED.

THE PROGRAMME OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The following is the official document providing for the organization of the Liberal convention:

The executive committee appointed by the Missouri State convention, by which the Liberal Republican National convention was called, having met in consultation with representatives of the delegations from the different states, announces the following plan of organization, which has been unanimously agreed on by that committee and the representatives consulted:

The National convention will be called to order in Exposition hall at noon on Wednesday. After effecting a temporary organization it will then be adjourned at once and the members from the several states will proceed to assemble in state conventions to elect delegates. Each state shall be entitled to representation upon the basis of four delegates at large, and two for each member of Congress allotted to it under the new apportionment. These conventions are recommended to select delegates from Congressional districts as far as possible. In case any state shall not be represented by a number of persons equal to that to which it shall be entitled under the foregoing rule, then those present shall be entitled to cast the full vote of the State. At ten o'clock Tuesday morning blank books for the enrollment of members will be furnished to delegates from the several states at Colonel George Ward Nichols, chairman of the local committee of arrangements, at No. 9, Mozart hall, for the purpose of ascertaining the number of tickets of admission to which each State is entitled. Those intending to participate in the convention are requested to state their names at their State headquarters during Tuesday, and the number those enrolled will be reported by the person having charge of enrollment for each State, and by him distributed at State headquarters, at ten o'clock to those who have been enrolled. These tickets will admit to the body of the hall. By order of executive committee.
